

Minutes of the Kingsboro Civic League

The Kingsboro Civic League meeting for Tuesday, October 18, 2022 was called to order by President, Ron Pier at 6:30 PM at the Constant House. There were 9 members present, one guest and later 2 police officers. The members included Ron Pier, Linda Jean McClure, Jabo Chavis, Tom and Cindy Ashley, Eddie and Susan Sharp, Sherry Matthews and new member, Virginia Davis. Guest was Tyrone Riddick.

Minutes from the last meeting held Sept 20, 2022 meeting were read and approved. No Treasurer's report. Discussion was held about bank account and Banks require an EIN #. Sherry is still trying to get through to IRS to obtain this for KCL

President Ron said he spoke to Terry Baronner about the sign in Coulbourn Park and it is on backorder.

Eddie Sharp was asked to get 3 more neighborhood signs to put out announcing our meetings.

Discussion was held again about racoons on Katherine St, Highland Ave and Nansemond Ave.

Discussion held about kids spray painting buildings and one vehicle on Katherine, Highland and Nansemond. A 9-year old suspected of this. Police came in during this discussion and suggested Citizens file a non-emergency report online and include pictures if possible. Ed says he plans to add another camera to catch them in the act. Police said our neighborhood has been pretty quiet, but they were buy=sy and couldn't stay.

Carol, Ed Beardsley and Ron to discuss Christmas party, hopefully before next meeting. December 20 is the tentative date and members were asked to commit for a head count by the next meeting.

Tyrone Riddick spoke about his campaigning for re-election to Suffolk School Board. He has helped make improvements and would like to continue, especially would like to see a homework center for families that need tutoring help for their children.

Next meeting will be November 15 at 6:30 PM

Meeting adjourned at 7:30 PM

Respectfully,

Sherry
