Renewal is coming up in July for all civic league members $25.00 per household and $12.50 per single.

Old business - we discussed national night out & competition conflicts. We decided as a group, this year to gracefully decline from national night out, due to conflicts of interest with other neighborhood parties that may be funded by the city and takes away from our park event.

Instead of NNO it was suggested to use money toward an after-school party possibly at the park .

Terri was delegated to develop a slate of officers for upcoming years civic league president, vice president, treasurer and secretary nominations please

New Business there is a senior citizens self-defense class being put on by the Suffolk Police Department from June 7 till August 9, 2017 you must be 55 years of age, it will be held on Wednesday mornings between 9 and 12 PM . Sign up by April 21 Carol has the applications.

James suggested that any canceled meetings for the civic league will automatically go to the following week at the same time and same place any delays there after we will be next month meeting.

Maybe a sign in the park for civic league meetings will be helpful for more attendance

Terri suggested that Kingsboro community needs a proper neighborhood sign from the city with a flower bed or shrubbery that marks entrances into our neighborhood area. The city provides other neighborhoods with signs but Kingsboro only seems to get: cat food & feral clans put in our green space.

James and Terri will search out locations for recommendations of neighborhood signage to recommend to our city of Suffolk.

washout concerns with drainage on Nansemond and Catherine St., Janesville follow up on the drainage with the city.

Complaints of juveniles on motorbikes inside the park and writing on the Constance Road no motor vehicles signage need it in park

If there are no other comments meeting is adjourned our next meeting will be Monday, May 1.2017 in the park.
