

Monday June 1, 2015 at Coulbourn Park

The June meeting of the Kingsboro Civic League was called to order at 7 pm by league president, James Blair. 13 attendees. Everyone introduced themselves. Officer Raymond from SPD reported that our neighborhood has been quiet during May. She addressed questions regarding strange timing of the ice cream truck (Blue Bunny) visits to the neighborhood.

Nathaniel Jackson and his son made presentation on the nature of the home at 318 Highland Ave. group home run by the Faith Foundation for intellectually disabled individuals. They discussed the different agencies that monitor their operation, the scheduling of staff, their residents ( currently 2 although they have space for 3) their goals for providing assistance, etc.

Karen Scott read minutes from last meeting. Group discussion was held regarding National Night Out , KCL election of officers next month, dues to be paid by June 30th and a picnic. Next meeting will be Monda, July 13th. Ron Pier spoke briefly regarding Nextdoor Kingsboro and the website (kingsborocivicleague.com). Meeting adjourned 7:50 pm

Sherry Orel